WOMAN WOULD LIKE ORCHARDIST HUSBAND

The Hood River apple has never received such an encomium as that brought Wilmer Sieg in Monday's mail. A widow of Oakland, Calif., has tasted the product of the Apple Valley, and so delightfully did it tickle her palate that she has hopes that she can find a mate among the local orchardists.

The letter in full follows:

"Pardon me for intruding, but if any one of you feels as I do, you would not blame me.

"My daughter, who is living with me, a beautiful girl, received a good sized package from her sweetheart. When the contents came to view, a lot of fine red apples were displayed. They were great, and the flavor, which I will not forget in a short time, won my heart.

"If such fine fruit can be produced up in Oregon, the men who cultivate the soil and produce such a product, must be greater. I wouldn't mind having a package of those apples sent me, I am a widow of several years, and I would not mind getting acquainted with one of those growers. While I am not worth anything outside of my personal and household furniture, I am worth my weight in gold—my weight is 160 pounds."

Then follows a detailed description of the woman won by apples.

The letter concludes: "If there is any gentleman up in your orchard district who would like me to correspond with him; who feels the loss of some one and who would like some one to make him happy, I shall be only too glad to fulfill his desires.

Mr. Sieg says he will be glad to furnish the address to any grower who wishes to correspond with the woman won with red apples.

APPEAL MADE FOR DEPENDENT CHILDREN

The Boys' and Girls' Aid Society is making its annual appeal to the schools and the public for holiday contributions of money, food supplies and clothing.

For 30 years the Society has been caring for the dependent and neglected children of Oregon, and it should have the generous support of all citizens interested in child welfare.

During the past year the Society has cared for 934 children in its receiving home, and supervised over 500 children whom it has placed in private homes, whereas the aim of the Society is to place the child as quickly as possible in a suitable home, the care of children at the receiving home is necessarily a large factor in the work.

Such care includes scientific treatment, for over 80 per cent of the children committed are not placeable until physical defects and ailments have been remedied. Until they are placed in the children must live in the receiving home, where everything is done to give them the advantages of normal children. It is in furtherance of this work that the co-operation of public spirited people is sought.

All contributions should be addressed to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, Portland, Ore., and should be shipped over the following transportation companies' lines, which carry all donations to the Society free of charge between November 15 and December 31:

O. W. R. & N. Co., S. P. & S. Co. and Dalles Portland & Astoria Nav. Co.

AT THE GEM TODAY

Hobart Bosworth in Joseph Medill Patterson's great drama, "A Little Brother of the Rich," Jane Novak, blonde, beautiful and full of pride, plays the part of the heroine. Roaring along at 60 miles an hour a huge locomotive strikes an automobile, producing a thrilling scene for this wonderful silent drama. A story of high society and the stage, and a play within a play is shown; for Miss Novak and Mr. Bosworth appear in the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet."

Sunday and Monday

"Neal of the Navy" will begin next Sunday. It will run Sunday and Monday of each week. With this wonderful picture will appear the Pathe Weekly and Pathe hand colored pictures, "Pic-turesque Belgium." A comedy, "Fat-ty's Fatal Fun," will also be shown.

"Neal of the Navy" shows real marine, and real scenes of Uncle Sam's great fleet. It was taken with the sanction of the United States naval department.

Wednesday and Thursday

Next Wednesday and Thursday the Gem will inaugurate a program of V. L. S. E. productions. These pictures are made from combined facilities of the Vitaphone, the Lubin, the Selig, and the Essanay companies, and some of the best moving pictures ever shown will be worked out for the delectation of the public. The following is a partial list of plays that will soon be seen at the Gem by Hood River people: "Graustark," "The Rony," "Tide's Tomato Surprise," and "The Raven."

Such stars as Henry Walthall, Edna Mayo, Anita Stewart, Earl Williams, Edith Storey, Maurice Costello and Raymond Hitchcock will be featured.

Local Bowlers Make High Scores

With the coming of cold weather local men have taken an unusual interest in bowling. The rivalry between ten pin experts has grown very keen, and crowds gather around the alley each evening to watch the outcome of games.

The following scores were made last Friday night by local bowlers: DeWitt—178-220-187; total 585; average 195; House—171-184-188; total 523; average 174; Smith—157-140-185; total 482; average 160; Poe—184-171-194; total 549; average 183.

The team of the local bowling club has issued a challenge to any team of the northwest.

Nanamaker-Berry

The wedding of Floyd Nanamaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nanamaker, and Miss Calla Berry, took place last Friday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Berry, Rev. W. B. Young officiating. Only members of the family and close friends witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Nanamaker have a host of friends in the valley whom the Glacier brings in best wishes and congratulations.

Mrs. McCully's Brother Dead

Paul Leech, of Albany, a brother of Mrs. Russell A. McCully, of the East Side, died Wednesday of last week from injuries sustained October 20 when he fell from a building on which he was at work. Mr. Leech, a son of Rev. D. H. Leech, pastor of the Corvallis Methodist church, was 23 years of age.

SHEPARD PRODUCES HIGH GRADE APPLES

One of the best yields of fruit from a local orchard was harvested this year by E. H. Shepard, one of the early managers of the Apple Growers' Union and editor of Better Fruit, who for years has made a study of apple culture. Mr. Shepard's apples this year were among the cleanest in the north west.

From a 36 acre orchard, of which but four acres of are in full bearing, Mr. Shepard the past season took off 5,520 boxes of commercial pack. Five hundred and thirty boxes were sold to the vinegar factory. Eighty-nine and eight-tenths of the apples were packed in the extra fancy and fancy grades. Only five and two-thirds per cent of the fruit of all grades, culls included, were affected by scab. This percentage was determined by five different counts of 500 apples each, the fruit being taken from different varieties and from different sections of the orchard. The average damage from worms was one and three-fifths per cent. Of the 530 boxes taken to the vinegar factory but 230 were eliminated from commercial packs because of any defect, the remainder having been composed of wind-falls. The sizes of the fruit were as follows: 76 per cent, 4-tier; 17 per cent, 4½-tier; 7 per cent, 5-tier.

From his past 15 years' experience in the valley as a fruit grower, Mr. Shepard says that the scab infected apples on his place this year is not higher than former years. He says that he has made observations from his own work and that of many other growers of the valley, and that he feels that scab may be controlled to a very large degree by close application.

MRS. CASTNER AP- POINTS COMMITTEES

Activities of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs will be conducted next year with no radical departures from past years, according to Mrs. Chas. H. Castner, newly elected president, who last Saturday made an announcement of appointment of committees of the organization.

"Our first meeting of importance," says Mrs. Castner, "will be Red Letter Day, the last Wednesday in January, when we will meet to consider the club scholarship fund. I look forward to new additions to the fund next year. Every affiliated organization in the state will be asked to contribute as liberally as possible, and I am looking for gratifying responses."

Mrs. Castner, who as chairman of the Federation's civic committee, launched the state clean-up day last year, says the club will endeavor to make the campaign of 1916 even more far reaching. Mrs. J. Riley Craven, of Dalles, chairman of the civic committee just appointed by Mrs. Castner, will be in charge of next year's clean-up day.

Mrs. W. W. Rowell, of the Barrett district, was appointed chairman of the education committee of the Federation.

AT NEW ELECTRIC

Thursday and Friday
Victor Moore, positively one of the foremost theatrical comedy stars in the world, will make his film debut as the star of Jesse L. Lasky's picture, "Snobs," the famous society satire by George Bronson Howard. "Snobs," which may be described as an uproarious comedy based on an essentially satirical idea and which is thoroughly completely removed from cheap slap-stick farce, tells the story of a milkman who suddenly inherits the title of an English duke and some 20 million dollars of actual money. He is anxious enough to have the money, but the society labors of being a duke are quite another matter.

Saturday

"The Protest," a three reel drama featuring Crane Wilbur.
"Love, Mumps and Bumps," a one reel Beauty comedy featuring Neva Garber and Webster Campbell.
"The Family Doctor," a one reel Reliance drama featuring Irene Hunt.

Sunday and Monday

David Belasco's stage triumph, "May Blossom," a play whose popularity and fame have endured for many decades, has been produced as a feature photoplay by the Famous Players, Film Company.

Tuesday and Wednesday

"Hearts Ardrift," a Mary Pickford portrayal, showing America's little navy sweetheart in scenes of a thrilling and pretty drama, laid in the south seas.

Postal Folk Have Party

The Hood River postoffice force and the city carriers and their families participated in a social event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tel W. Blount, assistant postmaster, last Thursday night. A most delectable oyster supper was followed by music and games. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Blount, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Melton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lynn and daughter, Miss Georgia, Misses Flora and Grace Wilson, Miss Virginia Johnson, Miss Florence Carson and Bill Bailey.

Notice of Meetings

The Experiment Station will hold four meetings as follows: Friday afternoon November 26, at Valley Christian church at 2 p. m.; Friday night at 8 o'clock, at Commercial Club; Saturday, Parkdale; Saturday night at 8 o'clock, at Pine Grove. The purpose of the meetings is to give a full report on the work of the station and the work as outlined for the future, financial problems and all other questions that may arise. Prof. A. C. Cordley, director of the Oregon Experiment Station, Prof. C. I. Lewis, of O. A. C.; R. W. Allen, director of the Hermiston station and LeRoy Childs, of the local station, will be present at the meetings.

WIND-FELLED TREE KILLS JAPANESE

The high wind of Sunday afternoon felled a large tree across the Japanese outfit car of the Oregon Lumber Co. at the camp on the West Fork of Hood river, killing one of the occupants of the car instantly. Branches of the tree struck a bunk house, occupied by white employees and one of the men was seriously injured.

The body of the Japanese, J. Katayama, was brought to the establishment of the Anderson Undertaking Co., where the funeral was held Tuesday, interment following at Idelwild cemetery.

The white man injured was O. H. Hall. He was brought to the local hospital for treatment.

Snyder Raises Peanuts

Among other crops tried for the first time this year in Hood River valley was a small plot of peanuts planted by F. B. Snyder, whose hobby is gardening. While Mr. Snyder failed to get his seed in the ground until late in the summer he has harvested several bushels of fine, well filled peas.

The peanuts planted were secured from Humphreys county, Tennessee, one of the heaviest peanut producing sections in the south.

Beware of Cheap Substitutes

In these days of keen competition it is important that the public should see that they get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and not take substitutes sold for the sake of extra profit. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has stood the test and been approved for more than forty years. Obtainable everywhere.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.
